QUEENS VICTOR IN HARD BATTLE

Canadians Force Defeat on Buff and Blue in Final Minutes—Both Teams Play Brilliant Hockey

SCORE 9-4

On Thursday night the Buff and Blue sextet succumbed in the final period to the fast Queens College hockey team on the Russell Sage rink by the score of 9 to 4. The game was exceedingly fast and not until the final minutes of play was the outcome decided.

The Canadians were the cleverest bunch of skaters that has appeared on the Hill this year, and the victory was well earned. The Hamilton team was somewhat lighter and not as mature as the Queens team.

The first period started off with a bang, with Hamilton assuming the offense. It did not take Queens long to become acquainted with the Hamilton style of attack and within a minute and a half of play she snapped one into the Buff and Blue net. The Canadians were very cautious of their shots and followed them in better than the Hamilton team. Queens scored again seven minutes later. This was followed a minute later by a pretty goal by Capt. Thompson. A little later Russ Thompson put one in on a neat pass from his brother. Queens scored just before the final gong for the first period.

The second period was distinctly Hamilton's. Capt. Thompson scored within five minutes of play on a pass, which was followed immediately by a goal by Russ Thompson. This last goal was made by Thompson unassisted and was a clean shot. The rest of the period was pretty evenly fought, and was marked by clever work on the part of both teams. Marks played a wonderful game at goal for Hamilton, and it was his clever stop work that kept the Queens' score from running high in the first two chapters.

Towards the end of the second period, Valentine was substituted for Capt. Thompson, and J. Valentine was substituted for Bates. Queens scored its lone tally for the second period just before the bell clanged.

The last period was exceptionally fast and furious. The pace was too much for the Hamilton team, and it was not long before the superior stamina and weight of the Queens team showed up to their advantage. Queens assumed the offensive for the majority of the time. Hamilton was able to come within striking distance of the Canadians' goal but three or four times during this period. In the last frame Queens scored five goals. About the middle of the period Price was substituted for Bates, who was forced to withdraw on account of an injury to his knee. H. Valentine was again substituted for Capt. Thompson towards the end of the game.

The outstanding men on the Hamilton team were the two Thompsons and Marks. Bates and Marlow played well at the two defense positions and prevented several more scores from appearing on the Queens account.

The stars of the Canadian team were Boucher and Reynolds. These men are two of the fastest skaters

BUFF AND BLUE FIVE INVADE NEW ENGLAND

Will Play at Albany on Thursday—Springfield and Mass. Aggies to Follow

When the Buff and Blue quintet plays the Massachusetts Aggies and Springfield on Friday and Saturday nights respectively in Massachusetts, it will run up against two of the hardest teams played so far. Springfield has one of the best aggregatons in years and has lost only four out of 21 games played. The team beat Clarkson, whch won over Colgate. It plays such teams as Boston Univerity, Brown, West Point, Stevens, Trinity, and R. P. I. Springfield last year was given first place by a summary of opinons of several of the ablest coaches of basketball. It may be remembered that Springfield is the "home of basketball." Coach Otto, who was with them in preceding years, is still coaching them.

The Massachusetts Aggies will be played at Amherst Friday night. They are reputed to be good on their own court. So far they have lost only four out of the fifteen games they have played. They play such colleges as Tufts, Harvard, Middlebury, and Bates. H. M. Gore, who coached them so successfully last year, is still with them.

Eleventh hour arrangements have been made for a game with Albany State on Thursday night. The teachers meet some of the fastest college teams in the East and promise a stiff battle for the varsity. The game begins the severest test of the season for the Buff and Blue and should put the team in shape for the games on the two nights following.

NOTICE

New York Alumni! Remember the Yale game at New Haven at 8 p. m., on Saturday, Feb. 24. Your presence will help the team.

The Arena at Wall and Chapel Sts. may be reached by trolleys which leave the station every few minutes.

There is a train which leaves the Grand Central Station in New York at 6 p. m., arriving in New Haven at 8. A return train leaves New Haven at 11:41 p. m., reaching New York at 1:55 a. m.

ROME FREE ACADEMY FIRST TO DOWN FROSH

Ricketts Features in Close Contest—Score 36-35

The Hamilton freshmen went down to defeat last Friday at the hands of the fast Rome Free Academy five in a closely contested game played at the Y. M. C. A. in Rome. Although victorious, the Rome aggregation was kept on its toes by the fast work of the freshmen. Hamilton held the lead at the end of the first half but Rome came through with a strong attack in the second period and finished the game with a score of 36-34. Ricketts did the best work for Hamilton. He made seven field goals. Payne caged three field baskets and eight fouls. Both teams were good in pass work and on the defense.

Rome made the first score of the game with two field goals. Payne then made two foul shots and Ricketts followed with two goals from the court. Hamilton held the lead from then until the end of the half. Score at half time 20-17.

Rome then took the lead at the beginning of the second period by putting in three field goals before Hamilton started. The score then seesawed back and forth till the final whistle.

FRATERNITY SKATERS WAGE HOCKEY WAR

Two interfraternity hockey games were played last Saturday afternoon on the Russell Sage rink, Alpha Delta Phi defeating Chi Psi 3 to 0, and the Neutrals beating Beta Kappa 2 to 0. C. W. Richards, J. Holley, and Lehmann scored for Alpha Delta Phi; Wheeler and Wehnau for the Neutrals.

These games leave the Neutrals and Alpha Delt in a deadlock for the honors. The vanquished, however, are nursing their wounds and looking for revenge. This week's contests should prove decisively which crowd is mistress of the rink.

AMHERST SNOWED UNDER BY VARSITY QUINTET

Buff and Blue Offers Tight Defense and Runs Up 30-16 Score—Doane and Marquardt High Scorers—Fencing Between Halves.

Saturday night, Feb. 17th, the Hamilton basketball quintet handed the visiting Amherst five a 30-16 defeat in a fast game in which both teams showed fast floor woork and good passing. The visitors showed up well in their teamwork. Time after time they would carry the ball down the floor only to have their play broken up by the Hamilton defense, centered around Ike McGiffin and Don Hamilton. Through the whole contest, Amherst scored only three field goals, two of which were scored in the second half. The Buff and Blue forwards were able to break away from their guards to drop in 13 goals, ten more than their opponents. The Hamilton team worked together all through the game. Its teamwork took the ball down the floor frequently and its passwork was very effective. Amherst played a fast, clean game, only six fouls being called on her men in the first half and none in the second. Four of these McGiffin turned in for scores. Nail, left guard for Amherst, dropped in 10 out of 14 tries from the foul mark, making up a large part of his team's score.

The first score of the game was made by the visitors on a foul shot but Doane soon scored on a field goal. The scorng proceeded slowly despite the lightning passwork of both teams. When the bell rang for the first half, Hamilton stood in the lead by one field goal with the score at 12-10. Amherst had scored only one field goal, dropped in by Kyle, right guard, but eight out of nine fouls were registered by Nail. Marquardt and Doane had been able to score two goals apiece, and McGiffin four fouls.

In the second half the Buff and Blue team started off to stretch out the two point lead and scored eighteen points to six by its opponents. Amherst put more speed in her passwork and tried hard to get through for a score but the rally missed its mark. Close shots were missed, and the best they could do was two field goals and two fouls. Marquardt tallied three, Doane four, and McGiffin and Hamilton one each. Toward the end of the period, Hatch was put out on personal fouls and Art Warren sent in, and in the last few minutes both teams sent in substitutes. Warner, Fauver, and Whitney went in for Kyle, Nail, and Millard and Smith was sent in for Don Hamilton and Croasdaile for Marquardt.

Walker did some of the best work for the visitors and Nail at the foul line made a good part of their score. Doane played a good game at center. Although his man was much taller and got the jump, he held him scoreless, himself turning in high score for Hamilton. Marquardt basketed some pretty shots and crowded Doane for honors with five baskets.

Between the halves of the game, the fencing team gave three exhibition bouts under the direction of Coach Gelas. In the first bout, George Kittell defeated Philip Scott at the foils. Don Kittell out-pointed Carl Stevens in the bout with the epee. In the sabre bout, Ogilvie defeated Johnson. Although the duelling sword bout seemed a little slow, the other bouts had a good deal of action in them, especially the sabre bout. The men showed good form and skill in handling the blades and much interest was displayed by the audience. These bouts were the first held on the Hill since Coach Gelas and Coach Murray of Columbia gave an exhibition a year ago.

Y. M. C. A. PLANS MOVIE PROGRAM

Six Feature Pictures, Including "Clarence" to Be Shown

Beginnig last Saturday, the Y. M. C. A. started on a new and more ambitious moving picture program. Under the special arrangement with the Famous Players-Lasky exchange in Albany, some fine super-specials have been obtained for the amusement of the undergraduates. Such great pictures as "Clarence," "Ladies Must Live," "Morals," and "The Bonded Woman" have been secured. The two pictures first named on the list have never been shown in Utica. "Clarence," a William DeMille production, is the last big film in which Wallace Reid starred. Favorites like Betty Compson, Thomas Meighan, Leatrice Joy, Theodore Roberts, and May McAvoy, wlll be presented on the Commons' screen. Booth Tarkington, Alice Duer Miller, William J. Locke, and John Fleming Wilson are some of the authors who have contributed the script for pictures to be shown.

Next Saturday's picture will be a film adapted from the novel by W. J. Locke, "The Morals of Marcus Ordeyne." The story is an amusing one, a rapid comedy of situations in which a middle-aged English baronet adopts a young girl whose childhood has been spent in a Turkish harem. The clash between Oriental and Occidental manners is deftly brought out. The star is May McAvoy of "Sentimental Tommy" fame, the director W. D. Taylor.

The Sage Building will be open to the public on Saturday evening, Feb. 24. No charge.

Stick By the Store!

Should the College Store announce that it was compelled to hold a clearance sale and put up the shutters, a chorus of indignant whys and wherefores and promiscuous hooting would quite probably come from those whose lack of interest in the business had caused the failure, the students. Not that such a catastrophe threatens; on the contrary, the store appears to be in a fair condition of health. But how can the business become a paying proposition to the General Association and thereby achieve its purpose?

Now it labors under a heavy debt which absorbs a good share of the profits. The only relief for this condition is a renewed interest on the part of the students in the form of continued patronage. Most of us have a hazy belief that the store is a nice thing to have on the Hill, but in the humdrum routine of affairs, we fail to appreciate it as a necessity. The store is at our service, why worry?

An indifferent attitude will leave the store where it is now, shackled with debt, loaded with stock ordered but never purchased, and yielding little or nothing toward the support of undergraduate activities. A complaining, cynical attitude will steadily kill business in the basement of Commons just as it will kill business anywhere else.

Where do we, as part proprietors, fall down in our obligations? We order goods or request that a new line of stock be placed on sale and then leave said goods a white elephant on the store shelves. We go to Utica for things because they may be a few cents cheaper there. We patronize the store too much as we would buy Red Cross seals or put pennies in a blind man's hat. We are afraid someone is making a fortune out of our few dollars, when in reality the profits are ours. The College community, exclusive of the students, seems almost unaware of the store's existence. Shoe agents and pennant peddlers do a thriving trade amounting to hundreds of dollars per year that undermines seriously the efforts of the store to help pay our undergraduate expenses.

Those in charge of the College Store are earnesly attempting to make it a success. Student representatives have been placed on the College Store committee. Capable and trustworthy management and adequate service have been instituted.

The store is ours. When a purchase is to be made, give the store first thought. Stick by the store.

Keep One Eye on the Ads.

The phantom of financial embarrassment has constantly dogged the steps of publication managers since our publications first started on their journeys through the world of college journalism. Last year this Hill was for a time in a great flustration over the plans proposed by Pi Delta Epsilon to kill off and carry out one or more of the publicatons and substitute a sort of quarterly composite of Lit, Hamiltonian, and Gaboon. There was considerable fidgeting and more or less relevant discussion before it became evident that none of the publications could be hastened to its demise without leaving a vacancy not readily filled.

Such commotion was not without sufficient provocation. Managers complained that it was becoming impossible to sell advertising space to the merchants of Utica except by appealing to their charitable instincts. Men approached on the subject said they gained nothing by their investment. As a result the legion of ass-managers besieging commercial Utica met little success.

The obvious way to impress advertisers with the value of ads in Hamilton publicatoins is to patronize them and in some manner let them know their advertising has borne good fruit. But it is rather difficult to remember what stores advertise and still harder for the stores to know that they receive trade from the Hill. A plan in outline is to present each advertiser taking over a specified amount of space in the ad columns with an emblem, preferably a small "H", that will be inconspicuous in his show window but will tell us who to patronize.

Some such plan seems advisable and the one mentioned looks good. It would stimulate the interest of merchants in Hamilton. Until the time when the publications can depend on some plan similar to the above, watch the ads and make Hamilton advertising a profitable investment.

A Junior Discussion.

A week or so ago in upperclassman chapel a discussion was given on the subject of morning devotions. It was stated that chapel is the college alarm clock, that little interest is taken in it by either faculty or students. We do not intend to criticize the members of the faculty who conduct the morning exercises, but we do feel that an attitude of apparent boredom in reading the Scriptures and offering prayer tends to cheapen the effect of chapel and mislead it from its proper and rightful purpose as a Hamilton institution. The stand taken by the chapel speaker is worthy of commendation as an expression of a general sentiment among the undergraduates.

FRESHMEN WIN AND LOSE ON ICE

Albany Academy Falls Under 5-2 Score—Nichols First to Defeat Freshmen

VAN VLIET, NICHOLSON SHINE

The Hamilton freshman hockey team encountered its first defeat of the season at the hands of the Nichols School of Buffalo Friday evening. The crack Buffalo outfit, which is ranked among the best sextets in preparatory school circles, outclassed the Buff and Blue yearlings and won by a score of 7 to 2.

The strong forward line of the visitors, and especially the brilliant work of Cass at center proved too strong for the freshman defense. Nichols scored three goals in the first period, two in the second and two in the third. Hamilton's tallies came in the first and last periods.

Nicholson gave Hamilton the lead after two minutes of play, when he shot the puck past Rich. Plumb soon tied the score, however, and two goals by Cass gave Nichols the advantage. Cass scored again at the start of the second period and Williams also tallied for the Buffalo boys near the end of the session.

Davis carried the puck down the rink and shot a goal after five minutes of play in the third period, and followed with another in less than a minute. Van Vliet accounted for the final score on a spectacular shot from right wing.

The line-up and summary:

FRESHMEN 2		NICHOLS 7
	left wing
Robson		Davis
	right wing
Van Vliet		McCarthy
	center
Nicholson		Cass
	left defense
Brush		Plumb
	right defense
Michels		Williams
	goal
Stanley, capt.		Rich, capt.

Scoring: Nichols: Cass 2, Davis 2, Plumb, Williams, McCarthy; Freshmen: Nicholson, Van Vliet. Substitutions: Bye for Robson, Robson for Bye. Referee: Watson Thompson. Timekeeper: Harry Yates.

After being held for two periods to a tie, the freshman hockey team found itself in the fourth period and decisively defeated the Albany Academy team on the Russell Sage rink Saturday afternoon by a 5-2 score.

The first two periods were listless, with the Albany lads doing most of the offense work. The yearlings seemed to be worn out from their hard contest of the preceding evening. In the second period Millan, the clever Albany center, shot the puck twice past Stanley.

It was a more determined freshman team that came on the ice at the start of the third period. The play became fast and Nicholson scored the first tally for the frosh after five minutes of play. Robson tied the score after a minute's more play on a goal from scrimmage.

In the third session the yearlings scored three goals; two of them were scored by Van Vliet and the third by Bye.

For the frosh Van Vliet's spectacular playing featured, while Millan was the backbone of the Academy team.

The summary:

Scoring: Freshmen: Van Vliet 2, Robson, Bye, Nicholson. Time: four ten mintue periods. Substitutons: Bye for Robson, Robson for Michels.

Referee: Russell Thompson; timekeeper: Val Alison.

ENTRANCE AT THE POINT

Carpe Diem

As Carpe takes his old Corona in hand, he is moved to remark with our own Ezra Pound ('04, you know)

Widter is icummed id,
Llude sig goddob.

The presence of Coughlin's minions, riding hither and thither on their chariots, lends enchantment to the winter scenes about our campus.

The gentlemen who occupy our pulpit on Sunday mornings, after announcing the next week's chapel speaker, should also name the chapel sleeper for the following week. By this system the lucky one would be able to arrange his Saturday night's amusement so that he could enjoy an hour's sleep the following morning.

Pillows and newspapers would also be desirable. The lack of the former is at present remedied by coats but these are merely winter luxuries.

The usual flow of bread-and-butter letters has been gradually trickling back from the visitants at Prom. Of course each fellow manages to ostentate his, with clever semi-concealment. Woe to him whose letter is late, for unfaithful hath been his woman, saith the crowd. Just ask Rex Holmes how long Riedel's letter took to arrive.

The fair young things one drags to hockey games are always fair game for Carpe's scrutinizing gaze and listening ear. Joie Mulchy's was heard to remark that she adored the Queen's game, all but that third quarter.

The Slimers have very kindly offered Manager Wood their services in cleaning the snow from the football field, so that mid-winter football practice can begin at once. That's just like the dear hardworking boys, isn't it, fellows?

By the way, did you realize that Hamilton is one of the few colleges in the country that has a building entirely devoted to fencing. The new Hall of Fencing sounds much better than the Old Library, and we would respectfully advocate its constant use hereafter.

Who said the female of the species is more deadly than the made? Queens beat us, but how about Princeton? Sounds like Charles Punster Langtry.

Nesbitt, manager of the Hamiltonian, should make his plans for leaving college, and we would suggest that his successor be elected at once.

BOSTON COLLEGE AND ELI FACE VARSITY

Two Strong Sextets Encountered in Next Two Games—Yale Game Will be at New Haven

The Buff and Blue hockey team will face one of the fastest and most skillful aggregations of the season when they play Boston College on Feb. 22, in the Russell Sage Building. Boston College has the reputation of having one of the best hockey teams playing in this country. The whole team is swift and brilliant. Mr. Prettyman states that those who see the Boston College game will witness some real hockey.

Those who witnessed the Queens-Hamilton game Thursday evening will be able to gather some idea of the ability of the Boston College skaters. Boston College defeated Queens after Queens had beaten McGill by a score of 3 to 1. Montreal bowed to Queens by a score of 10 to 0. Boston defeated Queens after she had been proclaimed the champion of Canada. This is the team which the Buff and Blue will battle against on the 22nd.

Two days later Yale will meet the varsity at New Haven. These two contests are looked forward to eagerly by followers of the Buff and Blue team.

Senior (a wise bird): "Have you done anything to preserve the national forests before you came up here?"

Bashful Frosh: "Why yes, sir. I've shot a few woodpeckers."

At Prom

He: "I found this hairpin in my pocket. Is it yours?"

She: "No, I use brown and this is black.'

He: (cheerfully) "I guess my fountain pen has been leaking."

Howdy Y. (the night of the big shindy): "Would you scream if I did?"

Prommer: "Why, Howard, you know I have such an awful cold I can hardly whisper."

Greg Tryon, the poker hound, is getting so he walks in a shuffle.

(Heard at the Sig dance): "Dick's girl has awfully good taste."

"Yes, I know she has. I kissed her, too."

Frosh: "What I like about you fellows is that you are optimistic."

Old Timer: "Well, we are, but how did you come to say that?"

Frosh: "Why, at breakfast at Commons everyone says: 'Please pass me the cream.' "

Jack Hastings: "Who was that tough looking bum you were with yesterday?"

Joe Squier: "Hey, come off, that was my twin brother."

J. H.: "Beg pardon, I should have known."

Stude: "And poor Harry was killed by a revolving crane."

Englishwoman: "My word! What fierce birds you have in America."

—Cornell Widow.

Old Lady: "Here's a penny, my poor man. Tell me, how did you become so destitute?"

Beggar: "I was like you, mum, a' giving away vast sums to the poor and needy."

UKRAINIAN NATIONAL CHORUS IN UTICA FEBRUARY 24

One of the big musical treats of the season comes to Utica on Saturday evening, February 24, under the auspices of the Smith College Club. It is the Ukrainian National Chorus, called the "human orchestra."

All Ukrainia, it seems, sings. Many thousand voices were tried and from them the forty which will be heard in Utica were selected to make up the chorus. It is reported that there is one duchess in the group.

"And," said an Amherst man after looking at their pictures, "a whole lot of queens."

The soloist with the chorus is Mme. Nina Koshetz, soprano, of the Moscow opera.

Tickets may be secured from Mrs. W. M. Carruth or from Carlyle E. Yates They are $2.50, $2.00, and $1.00.

that have been on the Hamilton rink this year, and were also very clever with the stick.

The injury to his knee incurred by Bates in the Queens game makes him appearance in the varsity line-up rather doubtful for the next game. Every possible means is being taken to get Biff in shape for Thursday's game so that the Buff and Blue defense may be at its best for that important struggle. Doc Bryden entertains hopes that Bates will be seen in action in the Boston game if the condtion of the injury continues to improve.

The summary of the game is as follows:

Line-up:

HAMILTON	QUEENS
right defense
Bates	Smith, Hansen
J. Valentine, Price
left defense
Marlow	Reynolds
center
W. Thompson	Boucher
left wing
Yates, H. Valentine	Boucher
right wing
R. Thompson	R. Brown

Marks	Brown

Score by periods:

Hamilton	2	2	0—4
Queens	3	1	5—9

Referee, Noonan. Umpire, Rally, Princeton, Time of periods: 15 minutes.

He Reached the Top

THE Vice-President of a great life insurance company who began his career as an agent has this to say to seniors who are about to graduate from college:

"If you love work and desire to pursue an honorable, useful and lucrative mission in life this is the business for you to take up. Life insurance salesmanship offers a fine field for the energies of the splendid young men in our colleges.

"That this is true is demonstrated by those college men who have taken up life insurance for they have shown that the college man is fit for this kind of a job and that the job also is fit for the college man.

"The work of the life insurance salesman is distinguished by independence and opportunity for directing his own. It gives all possible opportunity for individual initiative and a chance to make an ample income at an age when most fellows are struggling on a wage pittance."

That is the story of one who began at the bottom and reached the top without the help of a college education. The advantages are with you who graduate from college. Before deciding your career make inquiries of the "Agency Department."
